On-Campus Housing

The Residential Community provides comfortable, convenient campus housing for 3,100 single students. The Community is a unique mix of nontraditional suites and campus apartments, all located adjacent to the main campus classroom buildings. All suites and apartments are fully furnished and carpeted and have their own living rooms and bathrooms. The apartments also contain their own kitchens with all appliances. All suites and apartments provide wireless connectivity to the University's computer network giving residents access to University computing resources and the Internet. A variety of benefits are available to residents depending upon their living area within the Residential Community, these include: two swimming pools and one spa, study rooms, two service desks, meeting rooms, and outdoor recreation areas.

The Community's Residential Life program includes live-in professional and peer staff, hundreds of social and educational activities, living learning communities, and themed living areas. Living on-campus provides opportunities for students to engage and connect with other students, staff, and faculty.

Off-Campus Housing

The Housing Services Office maintains an online rental listing service for the local area. This service can be found online at www.sonoma.edu/housing and includes rental houses, apartments, and rooms in private homes. Other rental resources containing names and phone numbers of local apartment complexes is also available.

Summer Session and Conferences

During the summer, the Residential Community provides housing for Summer Session students and for guests participating in conferences hosted on campus.
